 d. 1721 7
 Dixi omnia cum hominibus 1721 7
 Dixi I wish I was in D. 1721 7
 to gram in D. 1721 7
 Divites se aliquando pos-
 sultant 1721 7
 Voci 1721 7
 Divitias love is like a d. 1721 7
 Divary on unwonted heights 1721 7
 Do all may do 1721 7
 all of them to do 1721 7
 all that he had done 1721 7
 all things well 1721 7
 as folk do, not my 1721 7
 as I may not as I do 1721 7
 as we are so we do 1721 7
 as we can 1721 7
 as we may, not as we do 1721 7
 as you please 1721 7
 as you would be never by 1721 7
 but daily not 1721 7
 doing nothing seems desires 1721 7
 go, and do that. However 1721 7
 How do you do 1721 7
 I can do no other 1721 7
 I can still do something 1721 7
 if not seemly do it not 1721 7
 if we do well here 1721 7
 ill, joy fades 1721 7
 it fast 1721 7
 it is public 1721 7
 it now 1721 7
 it with thy might 1721 7
 let us do or die 1721 7
 mainly part to do 1721 7
 may not do thing he would 1721 7
 noble things, not dreams 1721 7 nobly to do, nobly to die 1721 7
 not do unto others 1721 7
 not knowing what they do 1721 7
 not knowing to do, never do 1721 7
 not to others 1721 7
 not what we gain, but do 1721 7
 not what we ought 1721 7
 nothing abjectly 1721 7
 only one thing at once 1721 7
 or die 1721 7
 other men, they do you 1721 7
 the can d. no other 1721 7
 to which to do 1721 7
 that we would do 1721 7
 that which no other can 1721 7
 there but to do and die 1721 7 thing I was born to do 1721 7
 thus and I'll do time 1721 7
 thus things to do 1721 7
 thus with error do 1721 7
 to do and dare 1721 7
 to do as easy as to know 1721 7
 how things do neither 1721 7
 we do not see can 1721 7
 we do what we think 1721 7
